Henry Totten Named Indiana Motor Truck Association (IMTA) Technician “Grand Champion”

Indianapolis – Henry Totten, Wiers International was awarded Grand Champion at the 2016 Indiana Technician Championships held on June 11, 2016 at Lincoln College of Technology. This year over 40 technicians competed for the title of Grand Champion. Harold will be competing in American Trucking Association’s Technology & Maintenance Council’s National Technician Skills Competition September 18-21, 2016 in Raleigh, NC.

Henry has been a technician for over fourteen years. He has spent the last 10 years with the Wiers organization, and is currently a Senior Technician. He resides in Monticello, Indiana with his wife Lindsey, and four sons.

The Indiana Technician Championships is a competition of professional technicians hosted each year by the association’s Safety and Maintenance Council. The competition features a written test followed by 10 hands-on skills challenges that include PMI, HVAC, Engines, Tires & Wheels, Service Information, Fasteners, Electrical, Brakes, Ohm/Volt, and Fifth Wheel.
